

We are opposed to the FCC petition filed regarding the "established business relationship" allowing those businesses considering themselves as providing a business relationship, to call consumers as often as they wish over an 18 month period. This is in direct contradiction to the "no call" request and should not be approved.